

ZigBee Smart Outlet User Manual

1. Paired with a compatible ZigBee hub

A compatible ZigBee hub is required to control this smart outlet. Pair your smart outlet to a compatible ZigBee hub such as Mixtile Hub, SmartThings, Wink, or Amazon Echo Plus.

Pair process instruction: Plug the ZigBee smart outlet into other Socket, the indicator light on it will be slow blinking blue. It means that you should make it paired with a ZigBee Hub. Short press the power key "" on smart outlet, then the indicator light will be blinking fast, it means that the smart outlet is ready to be paired with the ZigBee hub, when you make them paired successfully, the indicator light on the smart outlet will be always blue on. After that, the smart outlet is ready for daily use.

2. Daily use instruction

When the smart outlet is powered on and ready to be used, you can turn on/off your appliances by press the power key, or via APP to turn on/off your appliance remotely.

3. Restore to factory settings

When you need to restore to factory settings, or need to re-pair with another ZigBee hub, you can press the power key long time, after 3 seconds, the indicator light will be blinking fast, it means that the smart outlet is restored to factory settings successfully, and meanwhile, it's ready to be paired with the new ZigBee hub again.

4. Appendix: A list for the indicator light status

Status	meaning
Slow blinking blue	Not paired with a ZigBee hub, but the power output is available.
Fast blinking blue	Ready to be paired with a ZigBee hub, and the power output is available.
Always blue on	Paired with a ZigBee hub successfully, and the power output is available.
Light off	The power output is cut off, not available for use.

FCC Warning

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

NOTE: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help important announcements

Radiation Exposure Statement

This equipment complies with FCC radiation exposure limits set forth for an uncontrolled environment. This equipment should be installed and operated with minimum distance 20cm between the radiator and your body.